

ABOUT THIS CLASS

Great craftspeople can become great crew leaders, foremen, and supervisors, with proper support, guidance, and educational opportunities. The Construction Foreman series provides participants with the knowledge they need to build their supervisory skills.

Who Should Attend

This program is for those with little or no formal supervisory training who supervise others in some capacity. This includes new crew leaders, foreman, and supervisors with anywhere from a few months to a few years' experience. Company owners, project managers, and experienced supervisors are welcome to attend.

THE SPEAKER

Michael Somers The Construction Classroom

Mike is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point with a degree in Business Management. He has more than 40 years construction experience as owner and manager of construction businesses in Wisconsin. Mike has served on the ABC Wisconsin Board of Directors and was the driving force behind the creation of the ABC Heavy Equipment Operator Apprenticeship program, having taught the program for several years. Currently, Mike teaches several construction leadership and management courses for ABC Wisconsin. In addition, he continues to travel throughout the United States and Canada teaching construction professionals and sharing a lifetime of "real experiences" in and personal enthusiasm for construction.
